

The Soul of Poetry

Share the Journey

Join us as we welcome our four distinguished

Washington State Poets Laureate

Samuel Green, Kathleen Flenniken, Elizabeth Austen & Tod Marshall

The poets read poems written to celebrate and raise awareness of the humanitarian aid programs of Catholic Relief Service (CRS) in over 120 countries, which serve 121 million people.

The evening also features Seattle University's theologian John Topel, SJ, who draws upon sacred scripture to address our call to serve the poorest of the poor.

Musicians will perform music from Ennio Morricone's 'The Mission.'

Thursday, April 26, 2018
7:00 to 8:15 pm
At Saint Cecilia Church

Donations will be gratefully accepted at the door to benefit Catholic Relief Services

For more information contact Mona Lydon-Rochelle @ 206-780-2134, minot@uw.edu

The Soul of Poetry

Share the Journey

COME HEAR SPECIAL GUESTS

Jesús J Huerta, Relationship Manager,
Catholic Relief Services West, Portland

Father John Topel, S.J., Theologian,
Jesuit Assistant to the Law School Dean, Seattle University

Samuel Green, Co-Editor, Brooding Heron Press
& Adjunct Professor, Seattle University

Kathleen Flenniken, Poet & Teacher for Writer's in the Schools, Seattle

Elizabeth Austen, Poet
& poetry commentator for KUOW, Seattle

Tod Marshall, Professor of English & Director of Writing,
Gonzaga University, Spokane

Reception to follow in Conger Hall * The event is FREE!
ALL ARE WELCOME family * friends * neighbors